

S.A.S.P. Presentations

Brooke Army Medical Center

2 November 1993

Case 1: 23 year old black female with pleural mass

Case 2 (1981): An infant with "lumps in the axilla"

Case 3: 77 year old white female with six year history of pelvic pain, now with three month history of metrorrhagia and solitary mass in right pelvis

Case 4: 29 year old male s/p cytoreductive chemotherapy, and peripheral blood stem cell transplantation. Course complicated by jaundice, right upper quadrant pain, weight gain and encephalopathy.

Case 5: 5 year old female with right infraorbital mass